

Quizlet

Indesign ACA

21 terms

EmmaSpaulding117

Which two are components of design project management?

Delivery timelines, project scope and requirements

When creating an ad for a new clothing retailer, what two things do you need from your client to start the design?

Who is the target customer for the ad, what is the purpose of the piece

Which of the following statements related to copyrighted images is true?

Images cannot be used beyond the scope of the license

In order to ensure that the design project meets the needs of the client, which three options should you choose?

Update the client regularly on the progress on the design, get the approval of the client for any changes to the scope of the project, present mock ups and sketches to help the client visualize the design

What two options would you use glyphs for?

Showing trademark, and showing currency

Which of the following is true when resizing an

the image size changes without changing the pixel density image?

In which scenario would the CMYK colorspace be used?	when designing for print
What does kerning do?	Changes the space between specific pairs of characters
What is a pasteboard?	The working area not including all pages
What is true of white space in design?	It adds balance and clarity to the design
To which of the following items can a hyperlink be created?	URLs, Text anchors, and pages
Which three options frame types are found in InDesign?	Graphic, text, and unassigned
What tool is used to insert text from a text document into a specific area of an InDesign document?	Type tool
What are paragraph styles used for?	To keep text formatted and looking as you would like
On the page panel, what three options do you have?	Move, Edit page size, and duplicate
In Indesign, what is a library used for?	to store graphics
How do you efficiently add page numbering to a multiple page document?	Use the type menu, Insert special character, select marker, select the current page number option
What does the live preflight feature in	it actively checks for and displays errors while you work

InDesign do?
Which 2 options are appropriate color settings for print or web?	RGB, Greyscale
Open the glyphs window and show only the Math symbols	In the menu bar, click on the type glyphs, in the glyph window click on SHOW scroll down to MATH SYMBOLS
How do you delete swatches?	in the swatches panel click on a swatch, then click on (clip art), options menu then click delete swatch